

HANDOUTS / DISPLAYS

The Chester County Library and District Center and the Henrietta Hankin Branch Library, hereinafter referred to as the Library, will sometimes provide for the distribution of handout materials or display of a poster/flyer for public awareness. These items may represent diverse points of view.

Because of space limitations, materials and events displayed are limited to those from the following organizations: government, libraries, schools, park and recreation departments, and other nonprofit or civic organizations. Materials from other organizations that partner with the Library may also be considered for distribution or display.

No poster, flyer, brochure, display or other handout may be placed in the Library without permission of the Library Director, the Branch Manager, or their designees. Decisions are based on space available and interest in the information by a large number of library users, as well as on the criteria listed above.

Religious tracts and partisan political materials may not be posted, displayed or distributed in the Library.

Except in unusual circumstances, fund-raising advertisements and activities will be limited to those that directly benefit the Library, Library System, the Friends of the Chester County Library, Exton, the Friends of the Henrietta Hankin Branch Library, the Fund for the Chester County Libraries and the Chester County Library Trust.

Acceptance of a display or distribution of handout materials does not indicate that the Library endorses a particular idea, cause or activity.
